Weather permitting.

Dear Pine Mountain First United Methodist Church,

I want everyone in our caring congregation to know how much your thoughts, prayers, and cards have brought joy and comfort to me. The cards that Jeri carried to me in the hospital, she lined up on the windowsill in a row almost all the way across the room.

Not only did I enjoy them, but so did the hospital staff: everyone had sweet comments about their beauty and kind inscriptions and about how many thoughtful friends I had.

On my last doctor's visit, I was dismissed with a healed wrist and am doing well at home listening to the noisy birds at my feeder. I am also back to making banana muffins and watching my beloved Braves.

Love to all,

Minnie Ellis Whitaker

P.S. Also, I received a prayer shawl from Jane Logan, who made it, and I treasure that welcome gift. A beautiful job!
